FTNI Named to Food Logistics' FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers List for Sixth Straight Year

Continued Growth and Customer Adoption of the ETran Integrated Receivables Platform Lands FTNI on Food Logistics' Annual List of Top Software and Technology Providers Again in 2020.

OMAHA, Neb. (PRWeb) December 16, 2020 – Financial Transmission Network, Inc. (FTNI), a provider of industry-leading integrated receivables, payment processing, and cash application automation solutions, today announced that Food Logistics, the only publication exclusively dedicated to covering the movement of product through the global food supply chain, has named FTNI to its 2020 FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers list.

This marks the sixth consecutive year FTNI has been honored by Food Logistics as a top software and technology provider to the food and beverage distribution industries. The annual FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers list honors leading software and technology companies that ensure a safe, efficient and reliable global food and beverage supply chain.

Over the past five years, FTNI has partnered with some of the distribution industry's leading cooperatives, buying groups, and back-office systems providers to create a vast network of partnerships and integration capabilities available to over 1,000 distribution companies across the U.S. and Canada. FTNI's momentum as a leading provider of truly integrated receivables solutions to different foodservice and beverage distributors continues to grow—adding 55+ new distribution customers in just over five years.

“From fleet management to warehouse management to simply just track and trace along the cold food chain, these software and technology providers have definitely stepped it up to ensure cold food and beverage products continue moving along the line without incident,” says Maina Mayer, editor-in-chief of Food Logistics and Supply & Demand Chain Executive. “This pandemic has thrown the food industry a curveball, but many of these providers fast-tracked the development and deployment of their solutions to ensure food safety, traceability, visibility and quality assurance. So, to these winners and others in the industry working to make a difference, thank you!”

Currently used by companies spanning numerous industries across the U.S. and Canada, FTNI's Integrated Receivables platform, ETran, has been proven to accelerate payment processing and cash application, while also reducing DSO by more than five days.

ETran's highly-configurable, modular design allows accounts receivables (A/R) operations to efficiently configure the platform to their unique business processes and workflows to streamline and automate payment processing and cash application. The seamlessly integrated solution offers the ability to accept any payment method, from any payment channel, all from a single, Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) platform. ETran's agnostic nature works with any existing bank, merchant processor and back-office system to support efficient integration and process automation.

"FTNI is honored to once again be recognized by Food Logistics for a sixth straight year," said Zac Robinson, senior vice president, sales and marketing, FTNI. "We've grown our distribution customer base immensely over the past several years, and 2020 has been no exception. We are very proud to have been able to help our customers quickly adapt to the disruptions brought on by the COVID-19 pandemic, helping a record number of distributors deploy secure, contactless online and AutoPay solutions in order to help their employees and customers stay safe and healthy during the payment process. We are also thankful for the close partnerships we've created with our customers and industry partners as they help us to continually improve and enhance our industry-leading solution."

Companies on this year's 2020 FL100+ Top Software and Technology Providers list will be profiled in the November/December 2020 issue of Food Logistics, as well as online at foodlogistics.com.
